

Europe
for Citizens

The True Dialogue
June to October 2022, Bremen
September 2022, Granada

Project Topic

The project aims at deepening the understanding of hate speech, intercultural dialogue, migration, euroscepticism and fake news.

We want to create and train a small team of young people to learn about the topics and become ambassadors of change in their local community.

Therefore, we are providing a training course on the topic and space to develop & implement own activities to raise awareness.

Project Goals

1

Learning about fake news, hate speech, inclusion
& euroscepticism.

2

Developing and implementing local activities about the topic.

3

Develop your own goals
and learning plan

4

Learn how to turn idea into concrete actions.

5

Establish strong network & friendships
of European youngsters

6

Intercultural learning: different cultures and enhancing dialogue
competences

Local Activities in Bremen

All participants will implement one activity that is focusing on one of the project topics before 15th August 2022.

For example:

- workshops or presentations (online or offline)
- theatre play or role play simulations,
- campaigns, NGO fairs, debates etc.

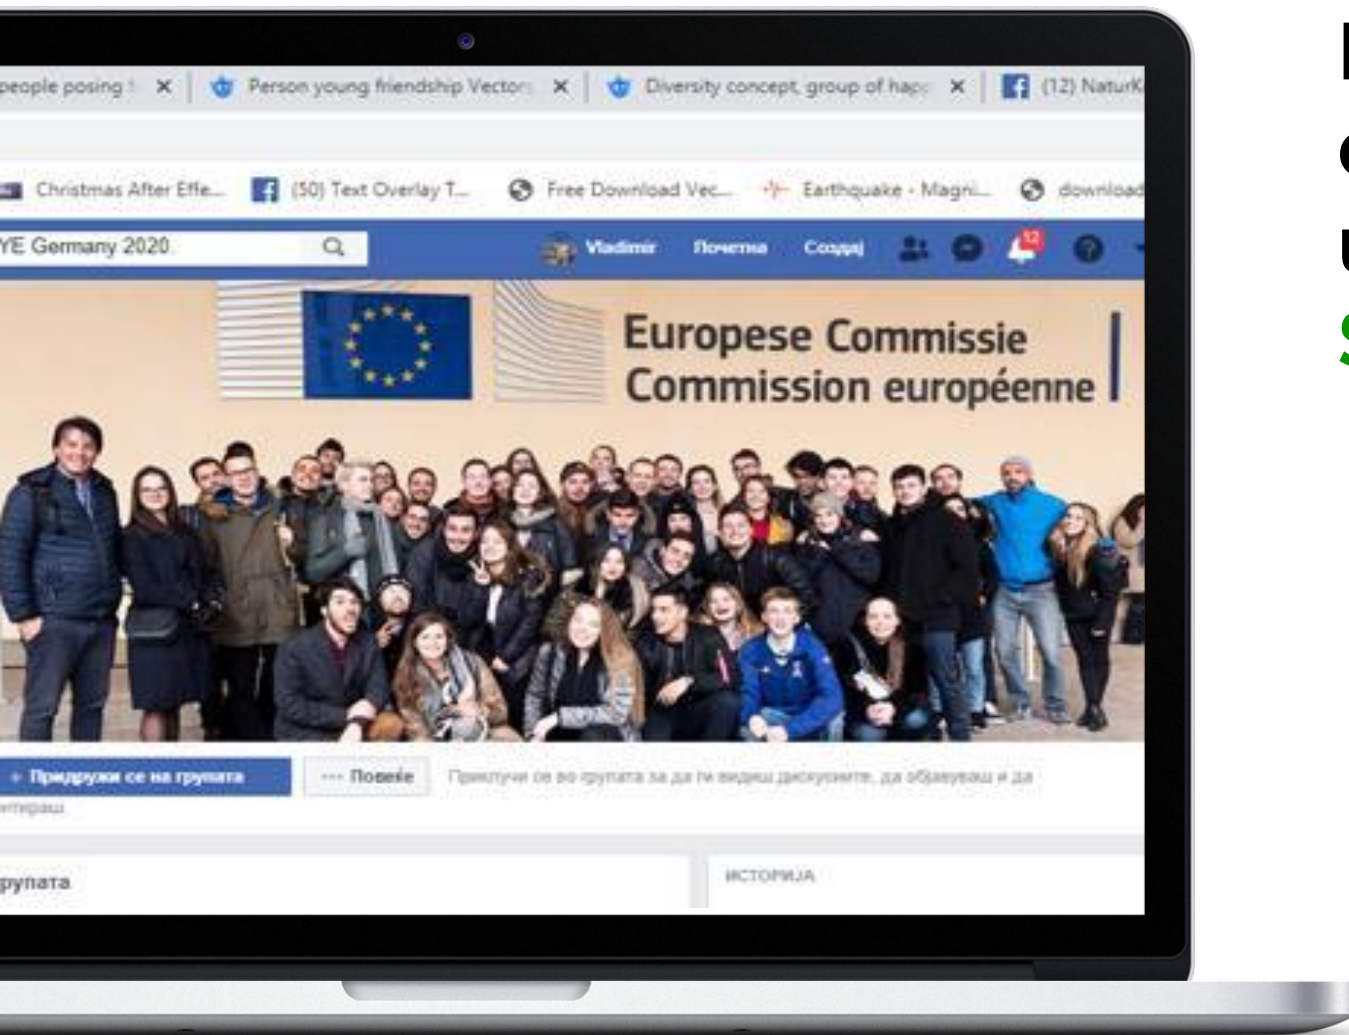

This includes signing a participant's list, writing a one to two-page report and providing photos to disseminate the results on social media

Training Course in Granada

The training course will be held during 1st and 7th of September 2022 in Granada and will equip the participants with further tools and competences about (a) the topics of the project and (b) facilitation of learning processes of individuals and groups.

Experts in anti-racism, fake news and euroscepticism will provide valuable insights into the topics.

Within four weeks after the training course, all participants have to develop one workshop where they share their knowledge with others. At least five people have to participate in the workshop.
